

Attention!

The Black Student Alliance has agreed to chair a general convocation of the university faculty, students, and administration at 10 o'clock a.m., Wednesday, May 28, 1969 in Glen Memorial Auditorium. All members of the Emory University community must attend. The future of Emory University as an honest, just institution is at stake. The moral fibre of this community is being challenged. A commitment to justice, honesty, and the eradication of racism requires your attendance.
