

HOW ABOUT SOCIAL LIFE ON THE CAMPUS?

The general spirit of good fellowship which prevails among our students is supplemented by a number of organizations, described on page 15 of this booklet, which promote social activities among their own members and in the interest of the whole student body. We ordinarily have two large dances each year, one in the fall quarter and one in the spring, both of which utilize the services of off-campus dance orchestras.

AND DORMITORY LIFE?

Dormitory life is regulated by the students themselves as a part of their training in assuming responsibility. The Student Senate, composed of representatives from each floor or section of the dormitories, establishes the rules under which students wish to live. When infractions occur, the case is heard before the Senate, and disciplinary action, where necessary, is taken.
